သံဃာတော်တို့၏အားကိုးရာ

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper and is organized into several lines. The script is dense and flowing, characteristic of historical cursive. There are two distinct circular marks or holes visible on the page, one near the center and one towards the right side. The text appears to be a continuous narrative or record, possibly related to a specific event or location, as suggested by the visible words like "Korom" and "Korom".
